VIII international short film festival and functional diversity

Bases of the VIII international short film festival and functional diversity Andaina 2020

The festival consists of the following sections:

TWO COMPETITIVES:

A- Official section

It includes a selection of jobs chosen by the evaluation commission

B- School section

Selection of work done by students and staff of educational centers.

NOT COMPETITIVE:

A-. Child section

A selection of animated films for children, which will be screened in school sessions

1) The Festival will be held in Redondela, Pontevedra (Spain) from March 9 to 15, 2020 at the facilities of the Multipurpose of A Xunqueira (Paseo da Xunqueira s / n)

2) Both national and international works are accepted, provided they are recorded or subtitled in Spanish or Galician. The duration of the works will be greater than 2 minutes and less than 20 minutes, and those that do not meet these requirements must be delivered in the original version.

3) The theme of the works submitted to the competition will address the issue of functional diversity, or will be carried out by a person with disabilities, and must agree with the purposes of the Andaina association; the improvement of the quality of life of people with functional diversity and their families, for which we consider essential the total integration in the school, social and work environment.

4) In the official section genres of fiction will be admitted and in the school, fiction and documentary genres may be delivered.

5) A maximum of two works per author will be admitted. These must have been generated after January 1, 2017.

6) It will be positively valued, that they are subtitled in Spanish or Galician, to facilitate access for people with hearing impairment.

7) The short films will be sent to the festival in digital format through the platforms: movibeta.com, festhome.com or clickforfestivals.com

- 8) A commission designated by the Festival organization will be in charge of selecting the works that will be submitted to the competition in the Official Section and in the School Section, among all the short films received; according to quality criteria and compliance with these standards. The commission will also choose the short films that will be shown in the non-competitive section of the Festival, its decision being final.
- 9) The festival will deliver two awards:
  - Official section: Awarded by the audience attending the different countries and endowed with € 500 and a statuette.
  - School section: A jury proposed by the Festival will award this prize with € 200 and a statuette.
- 10) The Festival Organization reserves the right to exclude all works whose content is obscene, violent, sexist, racist or violates any fundamental right of persons.
- 11) The authors of the works will assign to the Festival, during the celebration of the same, the exploitation rights of these, consisting in the reproduction, communication and public distribution of the same, as well as in subsequent exhibitions that the Andaina Association could make for purposes cultural or educational, which will always be exercised with the recognition of his status as author, except against manifestations.
- 12) The contestants are responsible for the absence of rights to third parties for the use of the musical pieces in the works presented and are also responsible for the image rights of the people who appear in them, exempting the Organization from any responsibility in this sense. In the event that an audio track with material owned by a record company is used without your permission, the contest film will not be accepted.
- 13) The deadline for receipt of work will be January 31, 2020
- 14) The organization reserves the right to modify these rules if necessary.
- 15) Participants must accept the treatment of the rules
